ABOUT THE ¡EL FUTURO IS HERE! CONFERENCE

ABOUT:

From July 29-31, Dominican University will host the fourth biennial ¡El Futuro Is Here! conference. Designed to create a space for rich theological conversation and reflection for campus ministers, theological educators, administrators, and student leaders, the ¡El Futuro Is Here! conference helps university ministers and theology departments, along with key collaborators, transform institutions to celebrate the cultural and faith practices of our Latino/a students.

AUDIENCE:

The ¡El Futuro Is Here! 2025 Conference will convene over 200 students, faculty, staff, administrators, and campus ministers from across the country. Sponsors and exhibitors will have the opportunity to engage over 100 student leaders who are protagonists on their respective campuses. Sponsors and exhibitors will have direct access to over 50 institutions (majority Catholic colleges and universities) that are committed to culturally responsive university practices.
