

ABOUT DOMINICAN UNIVERSITY

Dominican University is a private, Catholic university located 10 miles west of the Chicago Loop in River Forest. With an enrollment of over 3,000 students, the university offers bachelor's degrees in more than 50 areas of study, over 25 master's degrees and multiple doctoral programs as well. Dominican is ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News & World Report among Midwest master's-level universities and is recognized by U.S. News as the #1 top performer in Illinois for the social mobility of its graduates.

ABOUT COLLEGE OF BUSINESS, INFORMATION STUDIES AND TECHNOLOGY

Serving as a model of interdisciplinary learning and innovation, the College of Business, Information Studies and Technology builds on Dominican University's longstanding strengths in business, information science and emerging technologies to offer students a distinctive, career-focused academic experience. Through experiential learning, small, collaborative classes, expert faculty and access to market-driven dual-degree and certificate pathways, students gain the skills and perspective needed to thrive in today's information-driven economy. Within the college, the Brennan School of Business, one of the leading business schools in the Chicago metropolitan area, and the School of Information Studies, one of the region's only iSchools, prepare students to navigate complex organizations, leverage data and technology and lead with insight in rapidly evolving industries.

About Beta Gamma Sigma

The International Honor Society Beta Gamma Sigma has recognized scholastic excellence in the world's top business schools since 1913. Election to membership in Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest honor a business student can receive at a school accredited by AACSB International.

Beta Gamma Sigma membership provides recognition for a lifetime. This lifelong commitment to its members' academic and professional success is defined in the Society's mission: to encourage and honor academic achievement in the study of business, to cultivate and celebrate leadership and professional excellence, to advance the values of the Society and to serve its lifetime members.
