Top 5%: The Brennan Advantage

The Brennan School of Business has earned the prestigious accreditation of the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). Of the 17,000 business programs around the world, less than 5% have earned AACSB accreditation.

How the Accelerated MBA Program Works

- Apply for the Accelerated MBA Program before the end of your junior year.
- As soon as you achieve senior status, the Brennan School of Business will review your application for graduate school. To earn acceptance into the MBA program, you'll need a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Upon acceptance, an advisor will contact you to discuss your course options for the coming semester.
- To earn an MBA, the maximum number of courses is 10. If you take two graduate courses during your senior year, you'll have only 8 courses left to complete.
- In addition, there are six foundation courses. Each foundation course can be waived if you earn a B or better in an equivalent undergraduate course (or courses).
- If you earn waivers for all six foundation courses and complete two graduate courses as a senior, you'll need to complete only 8 more courses to earn your MBA. You'll save significant time and money!
- You can take the GMAT at any time before your first semester in graduate school. GMAT waivers are available.

Accelerated MBA

At Dominican, you can complete a bachelor's degree and an MBA in as little as five years. This special combined-degree program is ideal for students who want to prepare—as efficiently and affordably as possible—for true leadership roles in business.

The fast track to a first-rate business education

Imagine starting graduate school in your senior year. The Accelerated MBA Program enables you to do just that—at one of the premier business schools in the Chicago area. Your undergraduate academic advisor will help you plan a powerful curriculum that will allow you to earn a comprehensive, highly marketable business education in just five years—or at whatever pace works best for you. The curriculum at both the undergraduate and graduate levels is highly flexible and designed thoughtfully with the varying needs of students in mind. You can even choose to start your professional career while moving rapidly toward a cost-effective, cutting-edge MBA.

A program tailored to meet your professional goals

In our powerful, streamlined curriculum, you'll be immersed in advanced coursework structured in themed modules like leadership and ethics, financial decision making, and business problem solving, negotiation and strategy. From day one, you'll also be challenged to solve real-world business problems for our corporate and nonprofit partners, including in our Business Gateway Practicum. You'll also be introduced to techniques in negotiation. Electives are not required as part of your MBA degree, though you'll have the option to earn a certificate, on top of your degree, by taking at least two electives in market-trending areas such as accounting, data analytics, health care administration and more.

“The Dominican MBA really worked for me, especially the opportunities it gave me to complete strong internships. Those intense, real-world experiences have really helped me to stand out from the crowd.”

With a Brennan MBA, you'll be open to new ideas, proficient with emerging technologies, and able to adapt and thrive throughout a long and meaningful career.

Join a relationship-centered learning community

No one is lost in the crowd at Dominican. Our student-faculty ratio is 10 to 1. The average class has 16 students. This enables Brennan's faculty to engage each student as an individual with particular interests, concerns and goals. You'll prepare for business leadership alongside committed students who reflect the growing diversity of corporate teams. The Dominican model of community is based on a recognition of the profound value and unique potential of each person. We challenge one another to find our voices, develop our talents, and become our best selves.

A Top 10 University

Dominican is recognized as one of the best small universities in the Midwest. The prestigious "Best Colleges" review by U.S. News & World Report ranks Dominican at No. 10 out of nearly 160 regional Midwest universities. We're the highest-ranking small Catholic university in Illinois. And we are No. 1 in the Chicago area on the publication's "Best Value Schools" list, a category that closely examines academic quality and average net cost of attendance. Nearly all incoming students receive some form of financial aid.
