

APPLICATION FORM FOR ELLIN GREENE RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP

2022-2023

Application Deadline: August 5, 2022

Doctoral students who plan to conduct research about folklore, children's literature and storytelling (youth or adult) through the use of the Ellin Greene Storytelling Collection in the Butler Children's Literature Center are eligible to receive up to $1500 in 2022-2023 scholarship funds.

Read the following instructions carefully. Failure to follow the instructions may make your application ineligible:

- Complete this application form and include your responses to additional information requested below.
- All applicants must complete the FAFSA online at <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid> (school code: 001750). The FAFSA score must be filed each year the applicant seeks aid and is valid for a one-year period.
- Applicants must plan to enroll in the SOIS PhD program for the 2022-2023 academic year.

Scholarships are awarded to students based on a combination of merit as demonstrated by the incoming GPA, need as demonstrated on the FAFSA, and scholarship criteria match to the student's research focus. Please provide the following information as part of your application for the Ellin Greene scholarship:

1. Describe your general research interests (approximately 250 words).
2. Describe your experience and any research activities related to your study and scholarship plans (approximately 250 words).
3. How will the scholarship funds contribute to your success as a doctoral student? Please include any additional information that may assist in the evaluation of your application (approximately 250 words).
