

The Li and Li Scholarship

Made possible through a gift from
Richard and Dorothy Li

Administered by Dominican University and awarded through collaboration with the Chinese American Librarians Association (CALA)

Application Guidelines

- The Spring 2018 scholarship will be awarded in the amount of $2,500.
- Applicants must be students of Chinese ethnicity.
- Applicants must be accepted to or enrolled in Dominican University's School of Information Studies. If accepted and not yet enrolled, applicants must begin classes no later than the spring 2018 semester.
- Applicants must have a 3.2 grade point average.
- Applicants are to submit a letter of application and a 500-word essay describing
  - Your interest in libraries or information studies;
  - How your Chinese heritage will play a role in your professional service to your community; and
  - How you hope to be involved in CALA and how that will influence your professional life.
- Application deadline for the Spring 2018 scholarship is November 15, 2017. Email cover letter and essay to CASS Administrative Assistant Devon Sweeting, dsweeting@dom.edu, with "Li and Li Scholarship Application" in the subject line.
- The Selection Committee for this scholarship consists of the SOIS Director, Kate Marek, a representative from CALA, and Dr. Yijun Gao of SOIS.
- Applicants will be informed regarding the scholarship award by December 1, 2018.
- Questions? Contact CASS Administrative Assistant Devon Sweeting, at dsweeting@dom.edu.