

State Authorization

Dominican University is a member of the National Council on State Authorization Agreements (NC-SARA) and is therefore eligible to admit residents of 49 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the US Virgin Islands in its distance education programs. As a non-profit organization without a physical presence in California, Dominican University is exempt from registration/authorization from the California Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education. Students enrolled in programs resulting in licensure or professional certification are required to verify with their intended state of residence that the program meets licensure/certification requirements in that state.

Complaint Process:

Please visit <https://www.dom.edu/diversity/help-central/help-central-students> for instructions on how to file a complaint with the state of Illinois or your state of residence.

Professional Licensure/Certification:

If your program leads to a professional license or certification, authorization may be required from the state professional licensing board prior to beginning a clinical or field experience in a state other than Illinois. Check with your program's internship or clinical coordinator with questions about state professional licensing board requirements prior to beginning an internship or field experience in another state.
